

SETH DICKINSON.

DECEMBER 22, 1831.

Mr. PENDLETON, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Seth Dickinson, have examined the same, and report:

That it appears in evidence, that the said Dickinson served ten months continuously in 1776, in a company of Massachusetts' militia, against the common enemy, in the revolutionary war. We are further satisfied that the said Dickinson is in needy circumstances.

From a full examination of this case, we are of opinion that the said Dickinson is entitled to a pension, and report a bill accordingly.

SETH DICKINSON

December 22, 1831

Mr. Pendergast, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, reads
the following

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Seth Dickinson, have examined the same, and report:
That it appears in evidence that the said Dickinson served ten months continuously in 1775 in a company of Massachusetts militia against the common enemy in the revolutionary war. We are further satisfied that the said Dickinson is in needy circumstances.
From a full examination of this case, we are of opinion that the said Dickinson is entitled to a pension, and report a bill accordingly.